TRIAL ORDER

Each of these cases are ready for trial. On or before March 6, 2023, the parties in each of the cases are to meet and confer and file a joint Notice that states the following:

1. How many total trial days will it take for the case to be tried?
2. How many witnesses does each side intend to call, with a list of the witnesses for each side?
3. Are there any outstanding issues that need to be resolved before this case can be tried?
4. What efforts have been made to mediate this case? Would a referral to mediation possibly resolve this case?
5. Are there any dates in the next nine months when the attorneys are unavailable for trial?

The Court notifies all counsel that any of these cases, in any order, may be called for trial at any time.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
